

Mascaro awarded $3.4M in new contracts in Pennsylvania

J.P. Mascaro & Sons announced the company was recently awarded new contracts to service Clarks Summit and Avoca, Pennsylvania.

SUBSCRIBE

January 3, 2020

Posted by Adam Redling

Municipal / IC&I

J.P. Mascaro & Sons, a solid waste management company based out of Audubon, Pennsylvania, has announced that it was awarded approximately $3.4 million in competitively bid municipal waste collection and recycling contracts to serve the residents of the boroughs of Clarks Summit and Avoca, Pennsylvania.

“Our company takes great pride in being awarded residential waste services contracts by Avoca and Clarks Summit boroughs, and we are committed to providing premier service to the residents with new modern equipment, experienced service personnel and a dedicated upper management team,” J.P. Mascaro & Sons President Pat Mascaro says.

Both municipalities are located in northeastern Pennsylvania and will be serviced out of Mascaro's Wyoming Valley Division.